Baer And Louis In Chicago?

Despite the fickleness of fight fans, who will have no trouble recalling Max Baer being counted out on one knee when he was almost pushed into the ring with Joe Louis, there is strong indication that Promoter Mike Jacobs will take his time feeling out public sentiment in New York before he sets the site for the go in Gotham. As a matter of fact there is a good chance that the bout, which does not figure to draw too much money in New York due to Baer's lack of effort against Louis and despite his return to form against Tommy Farr, whose claim to fistic fame is that he "stayed" 15 rounds with Louis, the bout may go to Chicago, few of whose fight fans saw Baer quit to Louis and because the Windy City ring, where the track fast, would be not be nice if Dauber, a champion off track performer who will hardly win today on a goey track were galloping against Lawrin at Hollywood? Up at Boston, it looks this way to me: MENOW to win, WAR ADMIRAL to place, FLYING SCOT to show.

Pert Paragraphs

Though War Admiral's test against Seabiscuit at Suffolk Downs today over a muddy track is attracting major attention in the east it so happens that the Kentucky Derby and Preakness winners, Lawrin and Dauber are to run it out at the lovely new Hollywood track at Inglewood, California, where the weather is most always clear and the track fast. Would it not be nice if Dauber, a champion off track performer were running at Boston against War Admiral and Seabiscuit who will hardly win today on a goey track were galloping against Lawrin at Hollywood? Up at Boston, it looks this way to me: MENOW to win, WAR ADMIRAL to place, FLYING SCOT to show.

Would you believe it, that Tommy Farr came back to the good old U. S. A. with the idea in mind that he was a sure shot to get the next shot at Joe Louis mainly because he stayed with the champ for 15 rounds, but as yet to WIN a bout over here? That's why why Thomas is sticking so close to Mike Jacobs' menage in Fairhaven, N. J. these days.

That sentimental gentleman from Georgia whom I wrote about an evening or two ago, in relation to his friendship with Bobby Jones, told another true story with a Scotch angle to it. Complaining about the fact that he was able to score no better than 96 in a recent effort, Mr. Georgia was talking to the Scot who reminded him: "That's not too bad, mon, when you know that only 15 per cent of the golfers in this country are able to score less than 100 for 18 holes. That puts you in the higher class, doesn't it?"

Comrade D. F. (Moonface) Mulvey is still a bit warm around the gills relative to the recent Sunday picture in a local paper in which he was identified as none other than Mahatma Gandhi. A little dark from sunburn at his Sleeping Giant estate but not THAT dark, and he has lost a few ounces but hardly 150 pounds.

Young Ned Farley of Chase Country club did not do too badly in his first crack at the state amateur golf crown, for he qualified with two 76's and was beaten by the medalist Bobby Grant by only 2 and 1. Grant later being eliminated by Burt Resnik. However, it was Dom Soccolli's win over Charley Clare that provided the real upset of the tourney to date.

War Admiral, Loaded, Faces Crack Field

Muddy Track GIVES FLYING SCOT A CHANCE

War Admiral 11 to 10 Choice—Menow May Cause Surprise

BY ROBERT WEBB

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Boston, June 29—(UP)—The field for the Massachusetts Handicap, featuring the first meeting between War Admiral and Seabiscuit, today was reduced to seven entries as three long-shots were scratched.

The scratches were Slingshot, Old Comrade and Finance.

The weather was cloudy and the track was muddy.

War Admiral, champion three-year-old of 1937, was an early favorite at odds of 11-10. Seabiscuit handicap champion last year, was quoted at 3-1.

Three days of steady rain left the track in bad condition for the $50,000 added mile and an eighth race.

Although C. S. Howard, owner of Seabiscuit, will in all probability run his horse for the big purse which he won a year ago it was almost a forgone conclusion that the west coast racer would not be at his best.

Seabiscuit needs a fast track to bring out the speed that made him the greatest horse in the handicap division last year. Mud destroys his action. He tries hard to run, but just can't seem to get going unless he feels firm footing.

So it was War Admiral against the field, with Seabiscuit merely a strong second choice.

The Admiral, unbeaten since the two-year-old year, must cope with several mud-running lightweights. His trainer, George Conway, says he can do it.

Many of the turf critics think War Admiral, breaking from the extreme outside will go to the front and stay there, repulsing the challenge of first one horse and then another at various stages.

Forgetting Seabiscuit, those who searched for the horse to beat the Admiral could not decide between Hal Price Headley's Menow, who ran fast enough in the Belmont Futurity last year to set a new world's record for six and one-half furlongs, or the mud-loving flying Scot, pitched into the race with a 101-pound feather.

The mile and one-eighth distance may be too far for Menow although his brilliant victory in the Withers mile indicated that he can maintain his speed an additional furlong through the mud.

Flying Scot, quoted at 12-1, may go to the post no better than 6-1. An excellent off-track performer, he worked a 1:40 2-5 mile on a sloppy track Monday in such fine style that observers question whether War Admiral can spot him 29 pounds.

Mrs. Emil Denemark, whose stable has won most of the minor handicaps during this meeting, sends out War Minstrel. The horse may be as good as 10-1.

The question mark of the race is Peligroso II, a South American importation, at 103, four pounds lighter than Busy K.

The track gates open at 10:30 and half an hour later pari-mutuel windows begin business. Suffolk Downs officials anticipate a crowd of 50,000 and a mutual handle of $80,000.

Best Shots of Big Shots

By ART KRENZ

NEA Service Golf Writer

Hands, arms and wrists with the clubhead—especially the left hand and wrist. There must be a feeling of power in the left wrist and arm although both hands do the work. This left-handed feeling of power is needed to offset the greater strength of the right hand hitting forward.

Try to get the feeling that you are hitting the ball away from you with the left hand, not swinging the clubhead toward the left.

Let the left hand dominate the backswing and by all means let it have control of the swing at the top. Do not let the left hand be overpowered by the right. Of course the right plays its part in the swing but not until that part of the movement is reached in the downswing, known as the hitting region.

GRANT, CLARE KNOCKED OUT OF STATE GOLF GO

Resnik Takes Medalist; Soccolli Springs Surprise; Kosinski Wins

Orange, Conn., June 29—(UP)—Defending champion Tony Kosinski, youthful Bridgeport shot-maker, moved into the quarter-final round of the 38th annual Connecticut amateur golf championship today, while other favorites fell by the wayside.

Kosinski, who twice before won the championship, won two matches over a flooded Race Brook course yesterday. First he defeated George McLachlan, Ridgewood, 2 up, and then came through in the afternoon round to edge C. F. Larsen, New Haven, 3 and 2.

While Kosinski moved into the bracket of eight, Bobby Grant, Wethersfield, and Charley Clare, Race Brook, both former tournament winners and well known New England golfers, were dropped into defeat.

Burt Resnik, Race Brook, defeated Grant 3 and 2 in a second round match, and Dom Soccolli, Wethersfield, downed Clare, 2 and 1.

Bruno Pardner, New Haven Municipal, eliminated George Stritch, Bridgeport, the 1937 runner-up, 1 up, in a second round affair.

Others who moved into the quarter-final bracket included Dick Chapman, Greenwich, who defeated Cleo Marchetti, Wheeler Park, 4 and 2.

Holly Markley, Wethersfield, defeated W. J. Martin, Farmington, 3 and 1, in his second round of the day.

4 and 2, Frank Ross, Wampanoag, defeated F. G. Jarvis, Jr., Edgewood, in 10 holes.

Frank Cameron of the Home club, completed the bracket by defeating A. J. Pardee, Woodbridge Hill, 3 and 1.

In today's matches, Chapman plays Resnik; Kosinski meets Bruno Pardner; Soccolli takes Mandy and Ross plays Cameron.

College Golf

Greenwich, Conn., June 29—(UP)—Arnold Zimmerman, Blair academy, N. J., youngster started the second 18 in the Eastern Interscholastic golf championship today, holding a three-stroke lead over his nearest competitor.

Zimmerman splashed over the Greenwich Country club course yesterday in 71, one stroke over par, an excellent score considering the weather.

William Lewis, also of Blair was in second position with 74, while tied for third with 78's were Sloan Bashinsky, Lawrenceville, Walter Backford, Milton, Monty Norcross, Beddell William Brantberry Hun, Edward Foy Kingsley, and David Starrett, Berkshire.

Blair led the team competition with 212, with Hill school in second position with 350.

FAMOUS FRENCH TENNIS ACE ILL

Lack of Blood May Cause Death of International Sports Figure

Paris, June 29—(UP)—Suzanne Lenglen, former women's tennis champion of the world, is critically ill in a Paris hospital, it was disclosed today.

Suzanne Lenglen

She was suffering from pernicious anemia. One blood transfusion was performed this morning and two more were scheduled during the day. An insufficient supply of white corpuscles in the body, following a ganglionic condition behind the ears, caused anemia.

Miss Lenglen, who pioneered the short skirt for tennis, retired from the courts years ago to become a business woman. In recent years she operated a tennis school.

She beat the best women tennis players in the world and toured the United States with William T. Tilden, Vincent Richards and others from Promoter C. C. Pyle. She relinquished her amateur status in 1925.

DAUBER, LAWRIE TO RACE TODAY

Three-Year-Old Stars to Run 1 1/4 Miles at 126 Pounds

Inglewood, Cal., June 29—(UP)—A two-month-old argument will be settled today when Lawrin and Dauber run for a $50,000-added stake at Hollywood park.

The dispute is whether Lawrin, winner of the Kentucky Derby, or Dauber, victor in the Preakness, is the better horse. The test is the American three-year-old championship stake, to be run under Derby conditions of a mile and one-quarter and 126 pounds. Aside from the two famous principals, there are only two nominees—Cleveland Putnam's Wing and Wing and Mrs. E. Vovnos Romney, which will be coupled in the betting as an entry.

The Aces will depend upon their burler, Murphy and the lining of the Be-Be Twins, "Bing" Donnelly and "Buntz" Wrenn, and their slugging first-baseman, Quane, to come through with a win.

Aborigines Antics

The Pemberton Aces will play the Pine Hills for the championship of the Boys' Club league, Thursday night at Brascos Park.

Dan Kerwin, former Tribune mentor, has taken over the coaching duties of the Aces. Dan has his boys hustling all week for this coming game. Kerwin hopes to enter his boys into the Recreation league next year.

Travers, Murphy and Wrenn top the batters of the Aces with averages of .600, .588, and .583 respectively.

Today's Sport Parade

By HENRY McEMORE

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Boston, Mass., June 29—(UP)—Turning the binoculars on War Admiral and Seabiscuit, who, at long last, will meet in the $50,000 Massachusetts Handicap at Suffolk Downs today.

The Admiral's pampered bit of horse flesh... Born to the purple he has been to the races but 17 times in his two years and two months of racing...

Seabiscuit... Since he first felt the thrill of the barrier lifting in his face the Biscuit has answered the calls to arms 77 times, and his stout legs have earned the loam of nearly every track in America...

He made his start at Hialeah, Jan. 1 of 1935, and since then he has been shipped and re-shipped to Bowie, Harve de Grace, Jamaica, Rockingham, Narragansett, Saratoga, Aqueduct, Agawam, Belmont, Detroit, Agua Caliente, Bay Meadows, Santa Anita, Empire, Pimlico, Laurel, Tanforan and all the others.

The Admiral's races have been confined to high class events, against "name" horses... The Biscuit has run in every sort of race, from $100,000 events to cheap, claiming ones...

Only three jockeys have ever thrown a leg over War Admiral—Kurtzinger, Peters and Westrope... Everybody but Paul Revere has taken a flogging at piloting the unsinkable Seabiscuit around the turns...

First it was Stout and then it was Horn and then it was Peters and then it was Workman... And after them, to name a few, came Gilbert, Kopel, Horn, Hanford and Knott.

There never has been money enough to buy War Admiral, the silky son of Man o' War... But he was broken down and a price tag of $7500 put on his head...

This was the price Charlie Howard paid the late Ogden Mills for him—and when he went on after the sale to become one of the greatest winners of the known the Biscuit was so embittered that he pledged never again to sell Howard any sort of animal, be it lead pony or mule.

As a two-year-old, when he was still growing, War Admiral was made to race but six times... Seabiscuit was sent out 35 times, all but raced to death, as a two-year-old...

War Admiral never has finished out of the money, winning 14 times, taking the place twice, and the show once... His rival has won 27 of his races, finished second 12 times, third 11 times, and out of the money 27 times...

Today the Biscuit stood 12th and War Admiral 14th in the list of American money winners with $251,000 and $26,050, respectively... Should he win today's purse of $44,550 Biscuit would advance to sixth place in the standing with only Sun Beau ($376,744), Equipose ($338,610), Galant Fox ($326,165), Zer ($313,639), and Mate ($301,810), ahead of him...

The same is true of the Admiral. You hear much talk about how small War Admiral is... He is small, but Seabiscuit won't outweigh him by more than 20 pounds, and War Admiral is meaner than mischief at the post and runs as well in mud as he does on a fast track...

The Biscuit is as dignified as a schoolteacher at the gate, and can't abide heavy footing. The moral of all this is: If I were a betting man I'd have a little chunk on War Admiral today—if he was even money or better—and a little chunk on Menow if the Admiral was too short.
